account of the meeting

1045-1130 - JVB & SRP - 304 City Hall - John very annoyed at what John K. did on 3rd floor this summer. JVB worked on painting bulletin board; SRP watched and calmed down JVB's rage against the heavy hand of John K. & the STPA program. I listened and John calmed down, & then said - JVB: "I want to make a proposition to you. You like living out in the country and I like living out in the country. What would you say to having a room-mate. I could do work around the house for my half of the rent." SRP: "Excellent.
I think it's an excellent idea." JVB: "I could install a wood burning stove and we'd be all set." SRP: "Wonderful!" JVB: "Now it's settled."

WORKING DEADLINES

Monday, Sept. 17 Invitations addressed - Museum Monday, Sept. 24 Brochures addressed - Museum Posters Distributed Friends will be needed to help with receptions, mailings, and many other volunteer tasks. Discussion followed on all of the interrelated activities.

Beverly Black also commented that new, accessible lists of persons and members involved in various activities are being organized in the museum. These names will be useful for Friends committees in developing membership and activities.

It was felt that the collection of activities related to this exhibit is marvelous for the Everhart, and is a wonderful opportunity for The Friends Organization. We will have more enthusiastic members if this exhibit goes well.

V.P. Membership - Gus Vlassis. Lists of potential members are being developed. If Council members have names, or lists of names, to suggest, please give them to Gus or to Ellen. Gus will distribute new membership recruiting cards to Council members in September.

Ruthanne Jones reported on the Museum Shop. School groups and tourists have proved very successful. Very special Christmas gifts are being purchased now. The shop recently has doubled and sometimes tripled monthly sales.

Patricia Curran reported on the children's program presented this summer. Four programs were presented and all but $26 of expenses were paid from receipts and grants. 338 patrons more than doubled expectations. Plans are underway to present a similar series in 1985. It is a goal of the Museum to pay attention to our children's audience.

Discussion continued for an hour reviewing Museum plans for the next two years. Exhibits, seminars, meetings and activities which are in the formative stages sound very exciting. The professional reputation of the Everhart in Museum circles seems to be rapidly growing.

The next meeting of the Friends Council will be held in September at a time to be announced. Several committees may meet in the interim.

Respectfully submitted,
